CUBAN SPIRIT DAY AFTER DAY

For twenty years the HAVANA CLUB COLLECTION has delighted a multitude of cigar aficionados with practical objects, in zesty colours, directly inspired by the Cuban art of good living.

HAVANA CLUB ASHTRAYS

Behind the scenes of 'Success Story'. The Havana Club Collection of exclusive ceramic items is the result of a long standing partnership between Havana Club International and Jean Baudot, French journalist and publisher. The story starts in Havana in 1995, with the publication of the Havana Club Collection of books illustrating the history and originality of Cuban rum, in partnership with Havana Club International (HCI), a joint subsidiary of Pernod Ricard and the Cuban company Cubaron.

In 1997, Jean Baudot and his publishing firm, Cara Cara Edition, designed an ashtray for cigar smokers, with lines inspired by 1950s promotional objects. Following the complex technical development of an initial product, which included the process to display the Havana Club brand in de-enamelled, embossed letters, the first item was manufactured – El Egoista, an ashtray for an individual cigar.

Under an agreement with HCI, Cara Cara Edition began marketing this item in high end positioning, prestigious cigar shops and tobacconists throughout France before launching into several other European countries.

The initial positioning has proved to be a sound choice: a high end product range, 100% made in France (in the midst of a market awash in cheap Asian products), with top quality craftsmanship (for example the embossed letters are de-enamelled by hand) and elegant packaging, evoking the colours of Cuba and its tobacco.

All of these items are produced in the Bordeaux region of France. The packaging, of natural, colour micro-corrugated or open-corrugated cardboard, all displaying the collection's label, are produced by Cartonneris Garnung in Andernos, also near Bordeaux.
